BEING YOUNG

As a teenager you have to do this, you have to do that

I'm fed up of so many responsibilities

I have to do a lot of homework for school

I also have to be at a certain time at home

I must always behave like people want me to

But there's something I don't have to do:

I don't have to work to make money

Though my job is to be a good student and a good person
