BIZARRE

Walking down the street I came up with strange things

First I ran into a strange man that wore strange clothes

He had on oversized baggy pants and a really awkward shirt

A few blocks ahead I saw a red and blue dog

I think his hair was dyed by some crazy guy

Some people were jumping and singing on a corner

Farther ahead a young girl was carrying her parents in her arms

It all looked weird to me but then...

I woke up when the alarm went off
