

A PIT STOP

So, are we all ready to go?

Yup, The car's packed; we have munchies and music, and the map's in the car.

Did you fill up the tank and get the camera?

Both. All is set!

If we're not missing anything... let's go!

Yes! I love driving my car in road trips

Um... do you think we can make a pit stop?

But we've only been on the road for ten minutes.

I know, but I forgot to go to the bathroom before we left.

And so did I! We better make an early pit stop
