REAL, NOT REAL

This is a fairy tale

There are princesses, castles, dragons, ogres, knights...

But they're not all real. Dragons don't exist

Knights did exist, but long ago

There are also elves and gnomes

But they didn't exist. At least my father says so

I wish they had: they are cute

Oh and there's a prince charming too, but that doesn't exist either

At least my mother says so
